April 18, 2010

Featuring

David Niose, President of the AHA

"The Future of Organized Humanism"

The Humanists of Minnesota are proud to announce that David Niose, President of the American Humanist Association will be this year's banquet speaker.

David's background includes experience in mass communication and law. A graduate of Boston University's School of Public Communication and Suffolk University Law School, he has practiced law in Massachusetts since 1990. He has also worked in print and broadcast media, taught both history and law, and written extensively on a wide array of social and political issues. (He has an ongoing blog on Open Salon.)

As chair of the AHA's Media Committee, Niose helped develop the AHA's media campaign, where the AHA has begun promoting Humanism in national media to build awareness and acceptance of the Humanist worldview.

Niose has spoken to freethought groups around the country, emphasizing the importance of utilizing mass media to inject Humanist ideas into the public dialogue, improve the public image of Humanists, and sway public opinion away from the religious right. Niose also sits on the advisory panel of the Secular Coalition for America (SCA) and is a founding member of Greater Worcester Humanists.
